

Choice

It is your choice.

To continue with a worthless life

Or become someone that matters.

It is your choice.

To sit down and keep silent

Or stand up and speak out.

It is your choice.

To stand by and keep watching

Or come forward and do something.

It is your choice.

To pretend your strong and hide the tears

Or embrace your weaknesses and let them flow.

It is your choice.

To forget everything and run

Or face everything and rise.

It is your choice.

Pick wisely.
